Farmers' markets & setting the table for Mom!

The month of May means Mother's Day, farmers' markets, spring gardening and for me, the 12th anniversary of From the Kitchen to the Table on Broadway.

Now that the weather has turned warm, I invite you to step outside and stroll along Broadway and discover some of the wonderful shops, cafes and businesses. With the opening of the Market on Broadway on May 8th, there's an excitement in the air. Local farmers and vendors will set up their tables with the freshest fruits, vegetables and home-made delights. Meet your neighbours and friends, and see local area chefs pick up the items that will grace their restaurant tables later that evening.

Emile Henry is one of my favourite product lines, and in celebration of my 12th anniversary on Broadway, I'm pleased to offer 15% off all in-stock Emile Henry items, including their newly launched Caviar, the latest in their Urban Colours collection.

I'll be home in Germany this year for Mother's Day, and look forward to spending the day with my mom! Bring out your favourite linens, set the table with fresh flowers and your favourite tableware pieces, and enjoy a meal with your mom on this special day!

With warm springtime wishes,

Sigrid Wolm

PRODUCT OF THE MONTH - Emile Henry's new Caviar Collection

Anniversary Pricing on our entire
Emile Henry Collection

15% off all in-stock
Emile Henry items
during the month of May!

Our most classic and enduring line of table and cookware, we are pleased to offer 15% off our entire in-stock Emile Henry collection during the month of May!

Since 1850, Emile Henry has been producing quality cookware that goes from freezer, to oven to table. In fact, it was this product line that was the inspiration for the name of my store!

Introducing a new Urban Colour -- Caviar from Emile Henry

Modern and practical, like all Emile Henry tableware and cookware, Caviar from Emile Henry is a fresh new take on their classic design.

Caviar is finished in a deep midnight blue that reflects light beautifully and makes your table just shine. Perfect as a complete table setting, or accent with some of your other favourite pieces. Mix and match with bright colours for spring, or consider silver accents for a dramatic table setting, depending on your mood!

Emile Henry's Urban Colours collection features all of the same benefits of everything you've come to love about Emile Henry pottery -- it can go directly from the freezer to the hot oven or microwave, is scratch and chip resistant, and is dishwasher safe, making clean up easy.

Taking its lead from some of the hottest new colour trends in the design world, the Urban Colours collection renews everyday oven and tableware with modern elegance.

Come into the store and see the newest colour: caviar, and add a few pieces to your own collection during the month of May with savings of 15% on all in-stock items.

Emile Henry's tableware collection looks great in both formal and casual arrangements. We carry a full line of Now Design linens that bring casual elegance to any table setting, providing the perfect backdrop for your Emile Henry collection.

Setting a pretty table for your Mom!

Entertaining should be comfortable, easy and suit your own personal style. This Mother's Day why not treat your mom to a special day that allows her to spend the day enjoying her family. Surround your mom with some of her favourite colours, themes or flavours. Use your favourite table cloth, or add colour underneath a heirloom lace tablecloth by lining with an inexpensive (but colourful) plastic liner.

It doesn't need to be a five-course dinner -- how about a casual Sunday brunch featuring fresh fruit from the market, a fabulous pot of coffee, and some sweet pastries from your kitchen or your favourite bakery?

Decorate your table with fresh spring flowers, or pots of ivy from your local garden shop (a great gift to send home with your guests).

If your mom is an avid gardener, consider using small terra cotta pots as place markers on the table, and fill with gardening gloves, seed packets, gardening tools, or wind chimes!

If you've been to the market let the food set the stage. Platters or bowls filled with berries or sweet melon are always pretty to look at and better to eat!

Remember height when setting your table -- it's awkward to have to look around tall vases of flowers -- try floating flower buds in glass bowls.

Remember Mother's Day is all about family! Some of the best table decor is made of love! Family photos or hand made drawings from children or grandchildren are the best decorations of all! The little remembrances -- like her favourite blend of tea, or one of her favourite recipes that you prepare (with love) mean more than anything. Set your table, and serve a meal that allows you to enjoy spending this special day together. After all, that's what Mother's Day is all about!
